The Pastor's Pen...

As Easter approaches this year on April 20, let's keep in mind a couple of special opportunities we'll have in this holy season to make much of the risen Christ in our worship and witness.

First, we'll observe our annual Easter Sunrise Service on Easter Sunday morning at 7:00 AM. Our brothers and sisters at Calvary Baptist will host this year. How blessed we are to join with our sister congregation in lifting up the resurrected Jesus through song and through the preached word. Come and join us for this meaningful time of worship.

Second, our regularly scheduled Easter service here at SABC at 10:30 will provide us a wonderful opportunity to reach out to our friends, neighbors, coworkers, family members and others who need Christ. As we did last year, we will hand out a special invitation card to all our SABC people a couple of weeks before Easter. My job and your job will be to personally deliver that invitation to someone. If someone decides to accept your invitation to them to join us for Easter, consider meeting them in the parking lot and then taking them out to lunch after the service. Our theme for that special service will be, "Easter Brings Hope." Start praying about who you will invite to join us on Easter Sunday. We did this last year and the house was filled with those coming to worship the risen Christ. We pray that will happen again. As you pray, please don't focus on those you know who regularly attend another Bible-believing, gospel preaching church. Instead, focus on those who don't have a regular church home or a regular opportunity to hear the gospel. Those are the ones we want to focus on as we extend these special invitations. On this high, holy day of Easter, what an opportunity for us to invite others so they might hopefully meet the risen Christ that day! So again, please be in prayer about who you will invite as we focus on the hope of Easter on April 20. I'm excited about celebrating Easter this year with my church family and many others.

I'm so thankful to be pastor to such a wonderful church family. I love you all.

To have a church family that loves you, prays for you & supports you is a true blessing.
Thank you all for praying for Mr. Murray & us.
Also, thank you for the cards, food & visits.
We love you all!

Dear SABC Church Family,

I have enjoyed being with you for 68 years
but I guess it's the Lord's will that I am no longer able to. Thank you for the cards, food and visits for my 96th birthday. I miss you all and I love you.
